

Pearl Harbor In Exercises 9 and 10, use a set diagram to analyze the statement about the attacks at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. (See Example 3.)

9. Some of the Japanese machinery destroyed in the attack were midget submarines.
10. Some of the U.S. ships heavily damaged in the attack were battleships.

The USS Arizona sank in Pearl Harbor, where it still lies today. A memorial was built above the battleship. You can see the image of the sunken ship in the picture above.

The USS Pennsylvania was dry-docked when the attacks occurred. The battleship received only minor damage. The destroyers USS Downes and USS Cassin were dry-docked with the USS Pennsylvania, but they were heavily damaged.

Winston Churchill In Exercises 11–14, use a set diagram to analyze the Winston Churchill quote. (See Examples 3 and 4.)

11. "Some see private enterprise as a predatory target to be shot, others as a cow to be milked, but few are those who see it as a sturdy horse pulling the wagon."
12. "Once in a while you will stumble upon the truth but most of us manage to pick ourselves up and hurry along as if nothing had happened."
13. "Though I have now stated the two great dangers which menace the homes of the people, war and tyranny, I have not yet spoken of poverty and privation which are in many cases the prevailing anxiety."
"Sinews of Peace" speech
14. "From Stettin in the Baltic to Trieste in the Adriatic, an iron curtain has descended across the Continent. Behind that line lie all the capitals of the ancient states of Central and Eastern Europe. Warsaw, Berlin, Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Belgrade, Bucharest and Sofia, all these famous cities and the populations around them lie in what I must call the Soviet sphere, and all are subject in one form or another, not only to Soviet influence but to a very high and, in some cases, increasing measure of control from Moscow."
"Sinews of Peace" speech

Winston Churchill served as the British prime minister twice, with his first term during World War II. He was the first of seven foreigners to be named honorary citizens of the United States.
